Weekend Speaker and Theme:

Weekend Theme: “Elisha: A Tale of Ridiculous Faith” - Can you imagine what could happen if we gave control of our life to God? It’s scary, but the benefits are world-altering. The story of Elisha challenges us to answer God’s calling and take the risks that are necessary to do His will. It's time we start taking risks and making decisions the world doesn’t understand. Come see what life can look like when we let go...when we decide to have Ridiculous Faith. We are looking forward to a great time with you and your family as we join in large group teaching, small group discussions, and family devotions!

More about Pastor Jason: Jason Roton, otherwise known as "Johnny Rotten" to his peers, is just as likely to be seen shopping for shoes at Nordstrom Rack as holding epic thumb-war tournaments with his vintage WWE action figure collection. Truth be told, it's how he calms his mounting fear of bees and heights, especially when ladders are involved. He dreams of touring the Mediterranean, whitewater rafting on the Zambezi River and visiting the hobbit holes of New Zealand, but for now, playing a mean game of "Ticket to Ride" with his family suffices. All complicated theology aside, Jason believes that coffee is further proof that Jesus loves us.
